Book of the Month

Scott Engle

Do you have passion in your life? Are you passionate about your faith? Are you a passionate disciple of Jesus? We know that passion is key to a fulfilled, happy, and productive life. But passion seems to elude so many of us. Did you ever see another Christian and say to yourself, "I want some of that!" In a sermon series beginning this month, we will explore how to regain the passion in our lives and learn some simple easy-to-learn tools to help us in this.

This is the book that underlies the upcoming sermon and teaching series. It is an easy read, but still filled with many helpful, easy-to-remember, and challenging teachings. We hope that you will pick up a copy in the bookstore and read it before or during the sermon series.
