The Drama of Scripture: Finding Our Place in the Biblical Story

by Craig Bartholemew and Michael Goheen

Many Christians find it difficult to make sense of the Bible. We know a lot of stories and names but can't really see how they fit together in any meaningful way. Who is Joshua and where does he fit in? What does the story of Moses and the Exodus have to do with Jesus and the Last Supper? Why is so much of Revelation grounded in the Old Testament? Isn't it about the future and not the past? What difference does it make that Jesus was Jewish?

Bartholemew and Goheen's book is one of the best I've found at conveying the full sweep of the over-arching biblical narrative. It is well-indexed and I recommend it highly.
